The meeting was called to order by: Commissioner Schepper

This report was prepared by: Amanda King

3:01 PM – Commissioner Schepper called the meeting to order, and reviewed the agenda for the meeting.

3:11 PM – The joint committee reviewed and provided feedback on the preliminary calendars for the public hearings.

3:31 PM – The joint committee discussed the format for the public hearings, including potentially limiting each speaker’s time, how to split time between congressional and legislative map testimony, and utilizing the chairs to manage the hearings.

3:38 PM – Jessika Shipley, Independent Redistricting Commissions Staff, responded to questions about translation services at the public hearings.

3:42 PM – The joint committee discussed the need for props, such as maps for display at the public hearings and paper to submit written comments. The joint committee discussed concerns about providing child care at the public hearings and creating child friendly events at the public hearings rather than providing child care.

3:49 PM – The joint committee discussed creating a video or powerpoint to show at the beginning of each public hearing. The joint committee further discussed the format for the hearings, including allowing time for a debrief session after each public hearing.

4:01 PM – The joint committee adjourned.
