Hearing Items      Action Taken

  

12:04:30 PM
 Chair Shepherd Macklin gave opening remarks and introduced the informational redistricting video.

12:20:49 PM
 Ms. Carolyn Boller, representing self, testified. She stated that she would like for Arapahoe County and Aurora to be whole.

12:23:41 PM
 Ms. Diana Holland, representing self, testified. She stated she was happy to see Arapahoe County kept together and felt that the district followed the constitutional guidelines. Commissioners asked follow up questions on what areas should be included if more population is needed for the district.

12:31:18 PM
 Ms. Pam Cirbo, representing self, testified. She stated that the district as currently drawn is not competitive with Aurora included. She stated that Aurora and Littleton have different issues. Commissioners asked follow up questions regarding Ms. Cirbo's definition of competitiveness.

12:43:06 PM
 Ms. Eliza Hamrick, representing self, testified. She shared appreciation for Arapahoe County being kept together.

12:44:49 PM
 Mr. Chad Vorthman, representing self, testified. He stated that he liked the map and how it keeps rural communities together. He stated concerns with how the northern part of the 8th congressional district fits in with the southern section. Commissioners asked for thoughts on how the different rural communities fit together.

01:01:00 PM      The committee adjourned.
