The meeting was called to order by: Commissioner Schepper

This report was prepared by: Julia Jackson

3:08 PM – Commissioner Schepper called the meeting to order. She discussed her meeting with commissioners from the Independent Congressional Redistricting Commission. She noted that she had invited the congressional commission’s Public Hearing Schedule Committee to join the subcommittee’s next meeting: Thursday, May 20. She suggested a public announcement of the hearing schedule by the end of May.

3:14 PM – Commissioner Schepper discussed her review of the public comments.

3:17 PM – The subcommittee reviewed their draft public hearing schedule. They discussed including various communities of interest and locations where they could best reach diverse communities.

3:25 PM – Commissioner Schepper offered suggestions for a media strategy, including additional press releases. Commissioner Greenidge discussed a guest column he has drafted. Commissioner Schepper also requested that the legislative commissioners receive press clips on redistricting in Colorado, and she suggested the commissioners offer themselves for interviews in local news sources.

3:35 PM – The subcommittee discussed with Commissioner McReynolds her appointment to the U.S. Postal Service Board of Governors. Commissioner Schepper provided a summary of the meeting.

3:42 PM – Commissioner McReynolds suggested commissioners receive media training. The subcommittee discussed other methods to help commissioners feel more comfortable talking to the press.

3:51 PM – Commissioner Schepper wrapped up the meeting.

3:53 PM – The subcommittee adjourned.
